New Shepherd Films Announces Latest Book Release

“Memoirs of an Angel” from author/director Jim Huggins now available.

FALL RIVER, MA – New Shepherd Films, an independent, Christian film company focused on providing quality faith and family entertainment, announced today that Jim Huggins’ latest book, “Memoirs of an Angel” has just been released from OakTara Publishers and is available nationwide.

Memoirs of an Angel is the compelling story, told in poignant vignettes, of two surprising partners who not only change each other but impact the lives of countless others in unique ways that only God could have orchestrated. Memoirs is a heartwarming, inspiring read.

“This is the book that started it all,” said Huggins. “These are the behind-the-scenes stories of Cadie, a very special German Shepherd no one wanted, who inspired the movie ‘FOOTPRINTS’. This book contains the stories our fans have been asking for but we just couldn’t fit in the movie. And it contains a lot more detail of what happened on her journey.”

Huggins is the Cofounder and CEO of New Shepherd Films which has its principle offices located in Fall River, MA. With his business partner and co-producer, Russ Dougherty, he directed ‘FOOTPRINTS’ which is currently available on DVD and being shown in a variety of markets and venues internationally as well as here in the US. New Shepherd Films is working on its second film entitled ‘FORGOTTEN HEROES’.

New Shepherd Films partnered with OakTara Publishers in 2012. OakTara is a recognized leader in the publishing industry providing dozens of writers with new opportunities: from first-time publication to widening the readership for already-established authors. Their goal is to provide readers with something different, vibrant, and new—not “just the same old thing” that they’ve seen, time and again, from other inspirational publishers.

Memoirs is available directly from New Shepherd Films and OakTara as well as through distributors such as Amazon.com, BarnesandNoble.com, ChristianBook.com, Cokesbury.com, and many others.
